Overview

The power of reading drives both the plot and the motivation of each character in Cornelia Funke's Inkheart. The author offers a book within a book and allows the reader to experience the beauty of both. Inkheart taps into every reader's desire for her beloved characters to be brought to life, and shows just what happens when they bring their world into ours. Funke weaves a timeless tale about books, about imagination, about life. This installment of Flashlight Readers taps into students' critical reading, thinking, and expressive writing skills.
