Something's Wrong!

There's something different about these two pictures! Jeff needs your help to figure it out. Can you spot the differences? (Hint: There are four.)

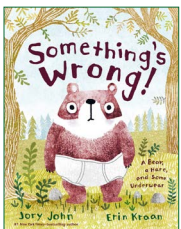

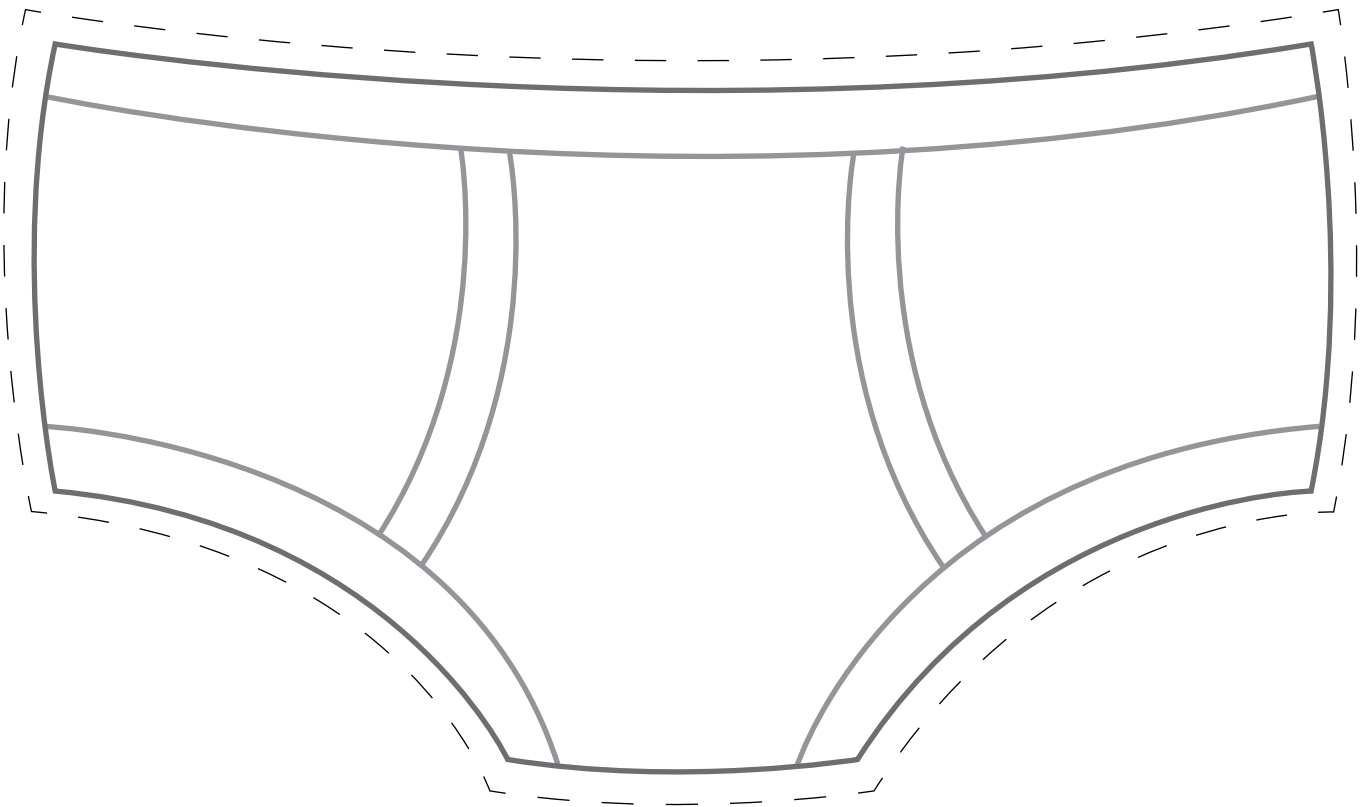

1. The color of the bird on the left has changed.
2. The direction of the turtle is reversed.
3. The bird on top of the moose is gone.
4. The moose's eyes are closed.

About the Creators

Jeff the bear has definitely forgotten something. He ate his breakfast, he watered his plant, he combed his fur. What could it be? Why does he feel so oddly off? So he asks his friend Anders the hare what could possibly be wrong. It couldn't have anything to do with the fact that he's wearing underwear over his fur ... could it?

Something's Wrong! is another read-out-loud, laugh-out-loud picture book about that horrible nagging feeling that it just might not be your day—but you know you have a friend to support you no matter what.

Jory John is an author of books for both children and adults. His work includes the New York Times bestselling picture books The Good Egg and The Bad Seed; the award-winning Goodnight Already! series; the popular picture books Penguin Problems and Giraffe Problems; and the New York Times bestselling Terrible Two series. He lives in Portland, Oregon.

Erin Kraan is a children's book illustrator, woodcutter, and printmaker. She loves the process of carving her characters into wood and seeing how their quirky and whimsical identities come to life through the ink in the prints. You can often find her doodling while drinking coffee and wearing cozy socks that are usually inside out or backwards. Something's Wrong! is her debut picture book. She lives in Vancouver, British Columbia.
